SATURDAY, NOV. 6, 1875.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Hansome Place Baptist church, of Brooklyn, N. Y., declines to accept the resignation of its pastor, Dr. Fulton.

The names of Mrs. Francis D. Moulton and Deacon West have been dropped from the Plymouth church roll.

The New York and Brooklyn Association of Congregational Ministers is going to investigate the truth or falsity of the charges against Henry Ward Beecher. Whitewash will be in demand.

Secondo Buzzi, one of the first of San Francisco decorative painters, died on Thursday.

The new Free Press, of Vienna, states that the Herzegovinian insurgents recently received a thousand breech-loading rifles from Montenegro. The Waywoods, or military commanders of Bosnia and Herzegovina, have convoked an assembly for the purpose of proclaiming a National Government.

The Pall Mall Gazette has a special from Berlin which says it is affirmed that Russia is not desirous of acting independently in the Herzegovinian matter. The three powers continue to act in complete harmony.

Cardinal McCloskey left London yesterday for Ireland.

A special dispatch from Constantinople says that an interview was held between the Sultan and Ignatieff. The latter pressed upon the Sultan the necessity for reform in the disturbed districts.

BRIGHAM YOUNG shows himself to be equal to the difficulties which surround him. The world can now appreciate the nerve and spirit of the old prophet which has held so many wives in subjection. The ordinary man who struggles with the difficulties of one matron and one household, meets the milliner's and grocery bills, and satisfactorily accounts for his evenings spent out of his homestead, has a faint conception of the trials of the great polygamist. BRIGHAM has met the new danger which threatens the loss of his entire patrimony from the suits for divorce by his many "better sixths" in a truly Spartan manner. He will remain in jail the rest of his days rather than pay the alimony to his recently divorced spouse. This fortitude and resignation will bring the dame to repentance and we expect to see her again in BRIGHAM'S household.

THE change in the complexion of the State Legislatures by the recent election will not have any influence upon Congress. In the forty-fourth Congress there are 292 members of the House, of which 165 are Democrats, 6 Independents and 103 Republicans, with 17 vacancies to be filled during 1875. It is an impossibility therefore to change the vote of this branch of the national Legislature so as to destroy the Democratic majority. The Territorial delegates stand four Democrats and four Republicans. The Senate is composed of 46 Republicans, 28 Democrats and one Independent, (NEWTON BOTT.) with no elections to take place before 1877. On joint ballot conceding that the Republicans gain five representatives and all the Independents vote with them the result would be 192 Democrats and 106 Republicans. Congress as at present constituted will count the electoral vote for President of 1876. Concerning the legislation of the next session there is no probability that any measures having the least bearing upon party issues can pass both houses. It will doubtless be a sharp game on both sides to commit the respective parties to certain lines of action for political effect.

A Wonderful Discovery.

So rapid is the progress of science at the present day that the wildest dreams of the theorist may be among the realities of the coming year. Tens of thousands of active brains are at work upon the problems of the age, and the investigations of one become the basis upon which others labor till they dazzle the world with some crude discovery, which is soon to be perfected under the stimulus of prospective fortunes eagerly offered by the utilitarian. A single generation has not passed since the electric current was applied to practical uses, and to-day the globe is covered with telegraph wires, the hearts of all nations beat responsive to the flash of the electric spark, and this agency now occupies a position second only to steam in enlightening and developing the human race; and all this though we are yet ignorant of the origin or character of this wonderful element. It is now said that this agent is to be devoted to a new use, and work incalculable advantage to the Pacific Coast. A scientific gentleman of New York who has devoted several years to the study of electricity has discovered a process by which he is enabled to estimate the body of ore contained in a mine just opened. Should this be true hundreds of millions of dollars will be added to the wealth of this coast. Less than one fourth the mines worked in this section pay a profit on the investment. The extent of a mine is always a matter of doubt and the capitalist most frequently finds that his outlay is less than his income. Should the reputed discovery prove correct mining will be reduced to a mathematical certainty, and enormous losses thereby averted. In Arizona alone such a method of testing the deposit of silver would be worth at least two or three hundred millions of dollars. Our people will therefore watch this matter with intense interest. When it can be determined with certainty that there are so many millions tons of silver in our mines the capital of the world will be at our command, and we shall be the richest people on the earth.

National Gold Banks.

It is a recognized fact among the political economists that a bank note is an element of danger in any financial system. It is so well recognized in the Old World that the issue of bank notes not secured by the actual coin in the bank vaults has been abandoned. In Great Britain a Bank of England note is simply a certificate that there is that much gold belonging to the holder in the vaults which he can get on demand. This is practically true of the notes of the Bank of France. In this country the credit system of bank has kept up the deceptive system of the bank notes. The national bankers note is secured in the most perfect manner, so far as ultimate safety is concerned, but it lacks the real commercial value, that of conversion on demand. It was necessary to keep at all times a cash reserve not less than twenty-five per cent of the outstanding notes. This small reserve was abolished by the last Congress, and the note is now only secured by the deposit of government bonds. The National Gold Bank therefore contains this dangerous element, and is likely to be closed up at any time by the note holders. The people of California have no confidence in paper money of any description, and now that their faith in national bank notes has been shaken it would be better for these institutions to at once redeem their notes, and confine themselves strictly to discount and deposit business.

The Question and the Issue.

No principle is more firmly fixed in the minds of the people of the United States than that the public school system is one of the main pillars which uphold and maintain their Republican form of government, and nothing will more thoroughly arouse the masses than an attempt to interfere with or in any way change that system. It is a noble, a grand institution. It places education and enlightenment within the reach of all. The child of the beggar, the penniless orphan and the offspring of the rich and influential each reaps its blessings and shares its benefits. It recognizes no caste and knows no creed or denomination. It is the common heritage of all—the birthright of all. Its importance is well understood and its advantages fully appreciated by every intelligent voter in the United States, and so well satisfied are all classes with its working that none will brook the slightest change or listen for a moment to arguments favoring inroads on the system. President GRANT was fully aware of this when he made his Des Moines speech. We shall not conjecture from whence he received the promptings that caused him to give utterance to the sentiments then expressed. The source was undoubtedly sectarian, and was one of those home thrusts which religious denominations so well know how to give each other. It was a master stroke and struck a key-note in the breasts of the masses, the reverberations of which were heard in Ohio and throughout the States that held elections on Tuesday last. The announcement that the next interdenominational war in the United States would be for the Lord's sake—would be a religious war—was meant to mean a struggle between two denominations, and the impression was conveyed that the entering wedge which should divide the nation was the claim of one party to a share of the public school money to be used in imparting sectarian education, and the denial of this claim by the other. In a word, it was to be a contest with the Roman Catholics on one side and the Protestants on the other. The premises once laid down, the President hinted, and his party organs and leaders have since asserted, that the Republican party would espouse the Protestant side of the controversy, and stand by it unto the bitter end. Having defined the premises and assumed their own position, the Republican leaders proceeded to assign the Democratic party its place in the contest, which was an advocacy of the Catholic cause. We may deny the correctness of the position as false, but the argument of those who drew the map has been made, and in rebuttal nothing was offered. Not one false line has been pointed out, and the Democratic party is to-day called upon to answer the charge of assenting to the Catholic demand for a division of the school money. That the indictment is founded on false evidence is most true; that the principles of Democracy are as positively and unalterably opposed to giving the control of the slightest portion of the school funds to any sect or denomination of whatever religion, is a fact which all intelligent minds will admit. But this cannot be claimed for here and there a man who found a place on the Democratic ticket, and it is these men who brought suspicion on the whole party, and the feeling of distrust born of this suspicion defeated the party in Pennsylvania and New Jersey and reduced to a fraction the majority in New York. There is one, and but one way to remove this damaging suspicion, and that is the manly and honorable way of embodying only Democratic principles in Democratic platforms. The sin of omission is almost as damning as that of commission, and a Democratic platform, no matter whether formed for State or National purposes, that does not embody an unqualified and unequivocal opposition to the diversion of a single dollar of the public school funds to the control of any religious sect or denomination, is not a Democratic platform—is not an expression of Democratic principles, and as surely as a fair expression of opinion is had the candidates who go before the people on such a platform are doomed to that ignominious defeat which is the just and merited fate of all enemies to a Republican form of government. If the Democratic party of California had ignored this subject or treated it in the coquettish manner of their brethren in Ohio, their defeat in September would have been as overwhelming as their victory was glorious. They met the issue fairly and squarely and placed themselves on record in language so plain as to be unmistakable. There is nor can be no question as to the position of the Democracy of California on the school fund proposition. It is uncompromisingly opposed to any change, and it has the courage to say so in its platform. It does not hesitate to assert that only candidates who endorse and will stand by these principles need seek nominations at its hands. This is true Democracy, and the Democrats of other States must imitate those of California if they would refute the slanders which the Republican leaders have heaped upon them.

PACIFIC COAST.

For Los Angeles.

CALIENTE, Nov. 5.—The following passengers for Los Angeles left on the Telegraph Stage Line to-day: Mr. Jacob Weil, Jacob Cohn, D. Goldmaker, D. Morey, John Gage, W. B. Stone, L. Howard, M. H. Stone and J. Jones.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 5th.—Several additional clerks were relieved last evening from further duty at the National Gold Bank and Trust Company. The clerical force now consists of the second note tellers, one paying teller and two book-keepers. The Cashier, D. W. C. Thomson, has resigned. The President, Henry L. Davis, is still at his post, and the affairs of the Bank are in the hands of the Finance Committee. The amount the Bank owes its depositors has been reduced to $800,000, of which we are assured will be paid dollar for dollar. It is also believed that the stockholders will get the par value of their stock. Some time must elapse, however, before the business is finally settled. Some of the Directors are anxious for a reorganization and continuance of business.

Last evening there was a formal distribution of the Rifle Association prizes in the rifle tournament, at the armory of the First Regiment, corner New Montgomery and Howard streets. At least one-third of those present were ladies and the remainder nearly all soldiers. On the platform were seated Governor Pacheco, who occupied the Chair, and Col. Harney, Col. Dodge, Col. Whittington and Col. Backlund, of his staff. Among the officers of the U. S. Army present were Gen. Brooks, Commandant at the Presidio; Major Throckmorton and Lieutenant Kyle, Tutherly, Gerard and Story; Colonel Smedberg, once President on the Division Staff, and Major Backus, Major Laird, Major Smith and Major Skelly, of the Brigade Staff, also Gen. Campbell. The exercises were introduced by a brief speech from Gov. Pacheco, after which an excellent address was delivered by Colonel Shaw, the President of the Association, on the value of rifle contests and practice. The prizes were then presented by Gov. Pacheco, Major Wilder assisting, and Col. Shaw making the necessary explanations. A pleasant dance followed.

EASTERN NEWS.

An Uneasy Feeling.

WASHINGTON, November 5th.—The dispatch from St. Louis announcing the indictment of prominent parties by the Grand Jury of that city, causes intense excitement here. The National Republican has the following double-column reference to the witness, Fitz Roy, on whose testimony these last indictments are said to have been founded: "He has just withdrawn his plea of not guilty and entered one of guilty to several of the counts in the indictment against him. It was then added that he would voluntarily testify before the Grand Jury. This is understood to form a part of the tactics to compel a screening of themselves, and in order to avoid public scandal, they have been making such threats to the President and Secretary Bristow for some months."

Orville Grant, Babcock and Others Indicted.

CINCINNATI, November 4th.—A special dispatch to the Enquirer, from St. Louis, says that the announcement is made that the U. S. Grand Jury has found indictments against ex-United States Assistant Attorneys Patrick and Kumb, ex-Marshall Newcomb, Orville Grant, brother of the President, Gen. Babcock, the President's private secretary, and others. The greatest excitement prevails. The indictments charge them with conspiring with St. Louis distillers to defraud the Government out of taxes on an immense amount of crooked whiskey. The indictments grew out of the testimony before the grand jury of Joseph Fitz Roy, late Deputy U. S. Collector. Fitz Roy was indicted by a previous grand jury, and lately pleaded guilty to the charges against him. He is said to have been Treasurer of the whiskey ring, the most gigantic combination to beat the Government that was ever created.

A Political Forecast.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5th.—The Herald this morning in an editorial under the head of "Political Consequences of the State Election," gives a list of the Democratic and Republican States, with the number of electoral votes to which each is entitled, to show the present political situation as regards the presidential election. The Democratic States are Alabama, Arkansas

California, Florida, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, New York, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia, with a total electoral vote of 188. The remainder are Republican States, nineteen in all, and have a total electoral vote of 181. This shows the next Presidential election to be close and doubtful, and that it will be one of the most strenuous and exciting contests that has ever occurred in the history of our politics. Judging by the late elections in all the States, the Democratic party would elect the next Presidential by a majority of 7. But that will be easily wiped out if the Republicans carry Ohio next October. The moral effect of the triumph, three weeks in advance of the great contest, being worth at least fifty electoral votes to the party which shall carry the State. The Republicans have merely to keep what they have gained last month to give them the ascendancy in Ohio in October 1876, and carry off the presidential prize. But if they lose Ohio the election of a Democratic President would be inevitable.

New York Democrats.

ALBANY, Nov. 5.—The Argus of today, in its election table of returns by counties, gives to Bigelow 14,458 majority. The Legislature, by its estimate, stands 21 Republicans and 11 Democrats in the Senate, and 66 Republicans and 56 Democrats in the Assembly.

All About a Dead Body.

MONTREAL, Nov. 4th.—The police were ordered in a body to the Central station this morning, and after answering to the roll and being inspected, were dismissed to await further orders. It is stated that the Mayor had reasons to apprehend mischief and had called the men together to be ready for any emergency. The men are still at Central station awaiting orders, but everything is quiet in the city. The reason for the centralization of the entire police force at Central station was the apprehension of disturbances in connection with the Guibord burial, as this was the day on which his remains were doomed to disappointment, for it was soon found that the funeral had been postponed. It is not likely that the funeral will take place before next week, and probably later.

MORNING DISPATCHES.

1 A. M.

[SPECIAL TO THE HERALD.]

EASTERN NEWS.

Wisconsin Election.

MADISON, Wis., November 5th.—A special says Chairman Keyes has returns from all the counties but one or two, nearly all of them being either closely estimated or official, and they place Ludington, Republican, ahead 10,143. It is believed now that Warner, Eaton and Bennett are elected by small majorities. The Democrats now generally concede Ludington's election, but claim the rest of their ticket, while the Republicans claim all their ticket, except Treasurer. The Senate has 21 Republicans to 12 Opposition, and in the House they are about evenly divided.

New York Election.

NEW YORK, November 5th.—The following are the most authentic figures on the result in this county that can be given until the official returns are made out. Hackett's majority for Recorder, 26,856; Phelps' majority for District Attorney, 27,178; Van Zwyler's majority for Surrogate, 25,337; Gildersleeve's majority for County Judge, 26,914. In the State Bigelow will have about 14,458 majority.

One More Failure.

WORCESTER, Mass., November 5th.—H. H. Chamberlin & Co., extensive wool dealers in this city, have suspended. Their liabilities are not yet known.

Direct Cable All Right.

NEW YORK, November 5th.—The Superintendent of the Direct Cable announces this afternoon that the cable room will re-open for business at midnight, this date. The tariff from New York will be seventy-seven cents per word.

The Whisky Ring Indicted.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5th.—A St. Louis special says John McFall, late U. S. Gauger, one of the indicted whisky ringers, this morning withdrew his plea of not guilty and plead guilty to all the charges. Sentence reserved. It is rumored that Judge Krum has been indicted for being engaged in defrauding the Government. Krum was U. S. District Attorney, but resigned about two years since. He was afterwards elected Judge of one of the Circuit Courts of St. Louis county. When the ring frauds were discovered members of the ring were in jeopardy and they forced Krum to resign and undertake their defense. The U. S. Grand Jury in Chicago to-day returned seventy-seven indictments, principally against distillers, rectifiers, gaugers and storekeepers for violating the revenue laws. They will be arrested immediately.

West Publishes a Card.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 5th.—A card was published to-day from Wm. F. West, whose name, together with that of Mrs. Emma C. Moulton, was stricken from the roll of membership of Plymouth church last night. West claims that his name was dropped without the slightest notice, and he was given no opportunity to meet the committee. He also says the precipitate action of the meeting last night will be understood by all.

The Clergymen in Council.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5th.—The following clergymen compose the committee: Rev. Dr. Buddington, Prof. Parsons, Prof. Martin, Chas. Hall, Everett William Taylor. There is some variance of opinion as to the character of the work assigned to the committee. One report says they will inquire whether Beecher's relations to his own church are such as other members of the Association bear to their churches. Another statement is that the committee will investigate the scandal matters.

The New York Election.

ALBANY, N. Y., November 5th.—The Journal's table of to-night gives the Democratic majority at 13,757, and estimates that the Assembly will have 71 Republicans, 53 Democrats, 3 anti-Tammany Democrats and 1 Independent. The Journal says the varying figures of New York and Kings counties upset all tables and baffle all calculations. They have changed every day, and almost every hour, since Tuesday night, and even now no two of the New York papers agree on them. We accept the figures of the Times, both because the authority is good and because our private advices correspond with them. This increase in New York, together with the corresponding increase in Kings county, will considerably swell the Democratic majority in the State.

The Mississippi Election.

WASHINGTON, November 5th.—G. W. Wells, candidate for Congress in the Second Congressional District of Mississippi, telegraphs the Attorney-General this morning that he is elected by a good majority. Mr. Wells is at present U. S. District Attorney for the Northern District of Mississippi, and is an anti-Ames man.

More about those Indictments.

WASHINGTON, November 5th.—Neither Secretary Bristow, Commissioner Herat nor Solicitor Wilson have received any information from St. Louis relative to the indictment of General Babcock or Orville Grant and others by the Grand Jury of that city. Secretary Bristow expresses the opinion, which the Commissioner of Internal Revenue concurs in, that there is no truth in the statement, and that it is out for sensational purposes, being a part of the tactics of the members of the whisky ring to break the force of their downfall.

The Trial of the Smugglers.

NEW YORK, November 5th.—Judge Benedict to-day rendered a decision refusing to quash the criminal indictments against H. B. Claffin & Co., indicted for connection with silk smuggling frauds.

Latest New York Election News.

NEW YORK, November 5th.—The latest returns from the election in this city show some slight changes from the former returns, but do not affect the general result.

FOREIGN.

Law Breakers Sentenced.

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 5th.—At the Assize Court this morning sentence was passed on the prisoners found guilty during the present assizes, as follows: Wm. Irvine, homicide, four years imprisonment; John Miller, for manslaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nash, fourteen years imprisonment; and G. Henry, burglary, seven years.

It was in Indiana; and she applied for a divorce. "Did he give you clothing enough?" said the Judge. "I lived with him nineteen years," said she, "and all the clothes that he ever bought me were a bunch of hair pins and a tooth brush."

YOUNG MEN
Who may be suffering from the effects of youthful follies or indiscretion, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR. PINNEY will guarantee to cure him who is afflicted with nervous weakness, or private disease of any kind or character, which he undertakes and will do so. He would therefore say to the unfortunate sufferer who may read this notice that you are treating upon dangerous ground when you longer delay in seeking the proper remedy for your complaint. You may in the first stage remember that you are approaching the fast if you are boning upon the last and are suffering some or all of its ill effects, remember that if you persist in procrastination the time must come when the most skillful physician can render you no assistance; when the door of hope will be closed against you; when no angel of mercy can bring you relief. In no case has the doctor failed of success. Then let not despair work upon your imagination, but avail yourself of the beneficial results of his treatment before your case is beyond the reach of medical skill, or before grim death hurries you to a premature grave. Full course of treatment $25. Send money by Post Office Order or Express, with full description of case. Call or address,

This is a sure cure for
Screw Worm, Scab and Foot Rot IN SHEEP.
It also kills TICKS, Lice, and all PARASITES that infest sheep.
Prevents scratching and greatly improves the quality of the wool. One gallon of the Dip properly diluted with water, will be sufficient to dip one hundred sheep, so that the cost of dipping is a mere trifle, and sheep owners will find that they are amply repaid by the improved health of their flocks.
This Dip is guaranteed to cure when used according to directions, and is far superior to Corrosive Sublimate, Sulphur, Tobacco, and other remedies which have heretofore been used by farmers.
Circulars sent, postpaid, upon application, giving full directions for its use; also certificates of prominent sheep-growers who have used large quantities of the Dip and pronounce it the most effective and reliable known cure and preventer of the Scab, and other kindred diseases in sheep.

THE STAR FRUIT DRYER.
This Dryer commends itself to every person who examines it. Every family who has an orchard, vineyard or garden ought to have one. It will supersede the canned fruit, as fruit and vegetables dried on this machine retain their freshness, and if soaked in water thirty minutes before cooking they are as sweet and fresh as those direct from the garden.
Now while there is no sale for grapes, one of these machines will be worth a thousand dollars on a vineyard in the State of California. With one of these machines you are independent of the local market.
